

Digital commons :Impressions@MAHE

Institutional Repositories (IRs) bring together all of a University's research under one umbrella, with an aim to preserve and provide access to that research. IRs are an excellent vehicle for working papers and conference papers. Presentations, senior theses, and other works not published elsewhere can also be published in the IR. Artwork, literature in the form of Images or video will also be archived.

Institutional data in the form of

- non-peer reviewed publications,
- presentation slides
- reports
- artwork
- Open access journal articles
- music/video collections , etc.

Can now be archived in this site for enhanced visibility and data retrieval at one point.

The site also provides tools like journal management and conference management which can be utilized by the institution while hosting a conference. For further details regarding the conference management, conference organizers are requested to contact at impressions@manipal.edu
